

The Blundy Family Marine Science Fellowship Application

Full name:

E-mail:

Phone Number:

Gender Identity:

Ethnicity:

Are you the first in your family to attend college?

College name:

Are you actively enrolled?

If not, when did you graduate?

What degree and major are you currently pursuing?

When do you plan to transfer or graduate?

If you are an international student, are you a student within the United States or from another country?

Do you plan on or currently are pursuing a graduate degree post-college?

Please select the area of research/education you are interested in:

Field work

Data analysis

Educational Curriculum development

Teaching

Social media/outreach

Laboratory work

What terms are you available? (Please rank in terms of preference.)

Winter: December 1 – February 28

Spring: March 1-May 30

Summer: June 1 – August 31

Fall: September 1- November 30

What do you hope to get out of the Blundy Family Marine Science Fellowship?

What are your current post-college plans?

Do you have any experience working in professional internships/fellowships? If yes, describe any experience you have had working in professional internships and when it occurred.

Do you have any experience conducting research in a laboratory (academic, government, or REUs)? If yes, please describe any experience conducting research in a laboratory and when it occurred.

Please arrange to have a letter of recommendation sent directly to the following email: dariasheik@caoceanalliance.org

This letter should be written by an instructor, employer, mentor, or someone who can speak knowledgeably about your career goals, interests, work ethic and/or relevant skills.

What resource(s) helped you find out about the Tracey Blundy Marine Science Internship?